LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.

A farm wanted—R. E. Baldwin.
High water to-day at 5:13 p. m.
Judge L. M. Hubbard of Wallingford was in town yesterday.
A grand band concert and illumination will be given at Savin Rock Friday evening.
The Governor's Foot Guard band gave a concert in Jocelyn square last evening.
Mrs. E. E. Gorham and sons of Norwalk are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lockwood of this city.
Mrs. Samuel C. Durand and Mrs. Hart N. Sperry of Milford have gone to Sheffield, Mass., to spend the balance of the summer.
Mrs. Spear, wife of Temperance Toller Spear, who has been seriously ill with malarial fever for over a week past, was improving yesterday.
Ex-Police Commissioner Horace L. Eames of Bridgeport died yesterday of softening of the brain. He leaves a wife, the daughter of Captain S. C. Kingman.

About 200 members and friends of the Ladies' Mutual Benevolent society of Hartford were at Savin Rock yesterday celebrating the eighth anniversary of the society.
The first annual excursion of the Young Men's Republican club will be held to-day, going to New York and Bay Ridge. It will be one of the largest excursions of the year.

The funeral of Mrs. Walter Leigh took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence in Westville. The services were conducted by Rev. George M. Phelps of St. James Episcopal church of Westville. The burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

The wedding of Mr. John B. Adriance and Mrs. C. L. Hart of 161 York street, will take place at high noon to-morrow. Mr. Adriance is well known, being connected with the firm of Henry Hooker & Co., and having been years ago a prominent carriage manufacturer on Park street.

The Hardy sons of Mars who set out to march from New Haven to Niantic, accomplished the feat, but will not try it again. They made forty miles in forty hours, or something like that, and feel more as if they had seen real service than any one else in camp. They have a right to—Hartford Times.

The Rev. Enoch E. Rogers and wife of Minnesota, who are visiting in Hartford with relatives, will leave for New Haven Friday and will spend the month with friends in this city, Orange, Cheshire and Danbury. They will return to Hartford before going back to the west. Mrs. Rogers is the sister of Miss Emily C. Prudden, who has spent most of her life in educational work in North Carolina since the war, spending her private fortune in the project. Mr. Rogers, after graduating from the Yale theological seminary, spent five years in Georgia, laboring among the freedmen.

EXCURSIONS YESTERDAY.

About Seven Hundred People Went to Glen Island Yesterday From This City.

The John H. Starin took about 700 people on its regular Tuesday excursion yesterday to Glen Island. There were on board large delegations from the members of the Church of the Ascension, New Haven Turners and the United Workmen of West Haven.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTING.

The East Haven Congregational Sunday school held their annual picnic at Hanover park, Meriden, Thursday, August 15, leaving New Haven at 8 o'clock a. m., Cedar Hill at 8:05. They have made arrangements for trip tickets including electric car fare at both ends of the route. Adults 75 cents, and children 50 cents. Friends are invited to join with them.

FAIR HAVEN HAPPENINGS.

Trolley Party of Quinnipiac Conclave, L. O. H.-Y. F. S. G. E. of Grand Avenue Baptist Church Arrived at Lake Saltonstall—entire to George Chipman's Horse—House Damaged by Lightning—Entertainment of the Sons of Temperance—Chicken Thieves on Downing Street—Large Shark Seen in River.

A party of ninety-nine members and friends of Quinnipiac conclave, Improved Order of Heptasophs, filled two trolley cars to overflowing Monday evening. The cars were prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The start was made from the corner of Grand avenue and Quinnipiac street, and from there the party proceeded to Montross. Returning down Quinnipiac street, the next stop was Woodmont, where a sumptuous dinner was awaiting them at Sanford's. Speeches were made by Judge Deming, E. S. Wade and F. S. Mansfield. After all had feasted to their entire satisfaction the party re-embarked and took a ride to Westville and from thence home. Among the number were: Judge and Mrs. Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Parmelee, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ives, Miss Ives, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Adler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Allyn, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Meikell.

Sunday evening lightning struck the cellarway of Mrs. Mary Perry's house on Wolcott street. The mason work was shattered and tumbled into the cellar and the water poured in, flooding the apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay of Houston street left yesterday for a ten days' trip to include Block Island and other shore resorts.

Herbert Kanahan and sister Mamie of Wolcott street are enjoying a visit to Willimantic.

The third musical and literary entertainment of the season will be given by Hiram Camp division, S. of T. in their hall, Osborn block, on Wednesday evening, August 21. The committee, consisting of Edward I. Stiles, F. K. Kanahan and Mamie Kanahan, have arranged an interesting program to comprise recitations by Mr. John Fahy and Mrs. C. Knowles, vocal solos by Worthy Patriarch James McLeod and W. Stoddard, who is soloist at St. Francis' church; banjo selections by the Columbia Castle, K. G. E., Banjo club, and an original sketch by A. B. Clinton, assisted by J. H. Miller. Ice cream and cake will be served at the close of the entertainment. A. B. Clinton, the Center street piano dealer, has tickets for sale.

Mrs. P. L. Kanahan is visiting her father-in-law, C. W. Kanahan of No. 2 Wolcott street.

The business meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Grand avenue Baptist church was held at Lake View cottage, Lake Saltonstall, Monday evening, the society being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wisner. The inside of the cottage was prettily decorated with flowers and the grounds were illuminated by Japanese lanterns. After the business was disposed of a social was held, at which time much enjoyable music was furnished. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served upon the lawn. The merry party returned by special car at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Manwaring, F. B. Smith, Bert French, Louis Bamberg, Fred Ammann, Joseph Jacobs, George Loveland, Eugene Jeffers, Harry Santry, Joe Trobels, Robert Covert, William Huntley, Walter Carpenter, Charles Hendrickson, Lena Smith, Amy Gage, Belle Meigs, Fannie Beebe, Nellie King, Lillie Ammann, Miss Kennedy, Hattie Baldwin, Viola Hall, Evelyn Davis, Hattie Hitchcock, Mrs. Northrop, Maude Northrop, Minnie Northrop, Libbie Smith, Grace Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wisner, Bessie Wisner and Ina Morrison.

A large shark has been sporting around the upper part of the Quinnipiac river for two or three days.

Herbert Hubbard, Will Hubbard and Clifford Hubbard will ride their own horses at the butchers' parade a week from Thursday.

George Chipman has been carting ashes for the rolling mill this week. His horse broke through the dock, injuring its foot severely. Dr. Ross has the animal in a sling, but at the best the animal will be useless for several weeks at least.

Chicken thieves have been making big hauls on Downing street. Monday evening the coop of Walter Hanson was robbed and several fine "broilers" were taken.

Thursday afternoon there will be three coal races at Riverside Driving park. There are ten entries and as no admission is charged a large attendance is anticipated.

W. R. Downes of Quinnipiac street, a teller at the New Haven Savings bank, has gone off on a week's yachting trip with a party of friends.

A HAT-BOX

Is indispensable to the gentleman, — and the traveler.

The purchase of a hat-box at this season, when the leather market is quiet, is a first-class investment, — and worthy of serious consideration.

The Governor's Reception.
Camp Coffin, Niantic, Aug. 13.—Major Babcock of the United States Army this evening decided that the positions taken by Colonel Cole's regiment during the sham fight to-day were not tenable, and that the Third Regiment thereby lost the battle.

Tomorrow, Wednesday, morning Governor Coffin and the members of his staff will arrive in camp. They will be met at the depot at 11 o'clock by General Havens and his staff officers, and the Second Regiment will do escort duty from the station to the camp ground. The usual salute of thirteen guns will be fired by the battery in honor of the governor's arrival.

The long service medals will be issued in camp this week and the following officers are to receive them: Lieutenant Colonel Crow, Fourth Regiment, South Norwalk; Major Sheridan, Fourth Regiment, and Captain La Barnes of the Second Regiment.

Lieutenant Buckland of the New Haven division of the naval militia arrived here this afternoon and has begun preparations for the arrival of the reserves, who are to camp here commencing August 19.

There were concerts to-night at brigade headquarters by the Third Regiment band and, at the regimental headquarters.

Injured in a Runaway.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 13.—A report reached this city tonight of a bad runaway this evening at York Beach. A party consisting of Mrs. Peck of New York, her two daughters and son were out riding when in turning out for another team to pass the carriage was overturned and the horses took fright, dragging the occupants some distance. The mother and son escaped with a severe shaking up and severe bruises, but both of the young ladies were picked up unconscious and taken to the Agamemnon's cottage, where both were found to be injured internally. A later report says one of the young ladies is dead and the other lies in a critical condition.

Ladies' Pocket Handkerchiefs happen to be cheap up to Wednesday night, but we made it happen so. Took the regular 25 cent Swiss Embroidered Handkerchiefs and marked them 19c. each.

35 patterns to pick from on Bargain Table No. 1. No snags.

The other Table (No. 2.) has 12 1-2 cent Handkerchiefs at 12 1-2c. each. In other words we don't have to charge more than a good thing is worth in order to get square with some badly bought bad thing. This is a 12 1-2 cent Handkerchief of which many women say,—"Good enough for me."
